MEETINGS AND CONFERENCE SPACES

For groups of 10–1,000 our elegant event facilities include a 9,000 sq.ft. ballroom and seven lakeside breakout rooms. Meeting spaces come equipped with tables, seating, and presentation equipment for you to use at your disposal. Meeting rooms vary from round-table to board-room styles to best fit your group needs.

The West Ballroom holds a capacity of 700 guests and is capable of separating into four closed salons. The West Ballroom is popular for medium-large sized conferences and weddings with an option for added access to the private outdoor West Lawn. Recently opened in May of 2018, The East Ballroom is an impressive beamless hall capable of occupying up to 1150 guests. The East Ballroom is equipped with interior and exterior speakers, and sliding doors lining the North and East walls toward balconies overlooking Okanagan Lake and Okanagan Lake Park.

With the numerous menu options available, our catering department will help make your function a great success. Our team of professionals will take away the stress and hassle of planning your event and take care of the details for you. Simply show up on the day and let us deliver you an immaculate experience you'll never forget. When looking for the perfect setting for your event, look no further than our expansive conference centre. With over 32000 sq.ft. of space and the Okanagan landscape as the scenic backdrop, our conference centre is an idyllic location for any occasion, be it a conference, tradeshow, wedding, or special event.

— OVERVIEW

LOCATION

Penticton is a charming city in the heart of the Okanagan Valley. Set between two lakes and surrounded by mountains, the Penticton Lakeside Resort & Conference Centre is located on the South shores of Okanagan Lake. The Penticton Regional Airport (YYF) is 8km from the property and offers multiple daily non-stop flights to Calgary and Vancouver via WestJet and Air Canada. Located just over 1 hour drive away, Kelowna International Airport (YLW) offers direct daily flights from most major Canadian cities and Seattle. Both the Coquihalla Highway and Highway 3 provide a link from the Lower Mainland. With a 4 to 4.5 hour drive, Penticton is 400km from Vancouver.

ACCOMODATION

The resort has 273 deluxe guest rooms, ranging in a variety of sizes and styles to best accomodate your stay.

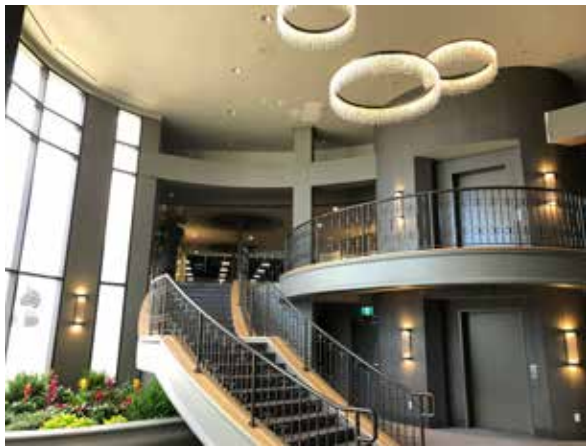

All rooms offer a business-friendly environment with working space, complimentary high-speed internet, private balcony, and just a walk away to all of our meeting space and conference rooms.

FACILITIES AND RECREATION

All guests have access to the indoor pool, hot tub, Pure Gym & Juicery workout facility, Three Wishes Boutique, Castaways Watersports (seasonal), our privately licensed beach and ice rink (seasonal). There are 12 complimentary boat slips available for registered in-house guests connected to The Hooded Merganser Bar & Grill. There is ample outdoor parking as well as a four-story parkade available with a standard fee to all guests. Four Tesla charging stations are available to use in the main parking lot. Merely walking distance from downtown, The Penticton Lakeside Resort and Conference Centre is a prime location to see all of the restaurants, shops, and boutiques lining the main strip. Wineries, hiking, rock climbing, and other outdoor adventures are just minutes away.

DINING AND ENTERTAINMENT

The resort is home to three restaurants — The Hooded Merganser Bar & Grill sits right above Lake Okanagan and serves contemporary cuisine with many ingredients exclusively provided by our Valley View Farm. The Barking Parrot Bar faces Lake Okanagan and is a staple piece of night life in downtown Penticton. The Bufflehead Cappucino Bar is a quiet lounge proudly serving Starbucks products. Each restaurant offers beautiful views of Lake Okanagan from both the interior and outdoor patios.
